

Our fiberglass grating is now being used as an alternative to metal grating. It is corrosive resistant and lighter in weight than metal. This is an excellent product, and well worth it. You can use it to cover a small drain area, which people occasionally step on and it holds up well.